Tax Revision Bill Victory for President

By JOE HALL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration leaders in Congress hailed today President Kennedy's tax revision bill victory in the House and turned their attention to a Senate fight expected to be just as hot.

An almost straight party-line vote saved the bill in the House Thursday. Passage by a vote of 219 to 196 came a few hours after the President at his news conference made a personal plea for the measure. The House action was considered his biggest triumph of the 1962 session.

Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana, the Democratic whip, said: "This sets the pattern for the Kennedy program this year. These were Democratic votes."

On final passage, 218 Democrats and a lone Republican, Rep. Richard H. Poff of Virginia, supported the bill, while 162 Republicans and 34 Democrats voted against it.

House Democratic Leaders said privately that when the day began the bill lacked the necessary votes to survive. Up to voting time the leaders worked furiously, buttonholing all Democratic House members.

The key test was a Republican effort to strip the two most important provisions from the measure—$1.2 billion in annual tax cuts to business that buy modern machinery and equipment and a withholding system for interest and dividends.

The administration won this fight with the support of 225 Democrats. Voting to strip the bill were 163 Republicans and 27 Democrats.

The Senate Finance Committee will lose no time in getting down to work on the bill, but floor debate in that branch is many weeks away.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon will be the opening witness as five weeks of public testimony begin next Monday. Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said more than 200 witnesses are listed and the hearings may run even longer.

The committee is sharply split on the bill. Liberals are anxious to strengthen loophole-closing provisions and add many more, while conservatives feel that the bill already goes too far.

Besides the business investment and withholding provisions, the bill as it cleared the House increased taxes on mutual funds and savings and loan associations, on mutual fire and casualty companies, and on cooperatives. It also tightened present regulations on entertainment expenses and on foreign income.

KXAR will carry two special school broadcasts this Saturday. At 10 a. m. The Hempstead County Spelling Bee will be held in the auditorium of Brookwood School and will be broadcast live on KXAR. Special trophies will be presented by the Hope Kiwanis and Lions Clubs with winners going on to regional competition.

5, 6, 7, and 8 grade students from all white schools will take part. Negro school competition will come in May and KXAR will also carry that broadcast.

Preliminary winners and their schools are as follows: Peasley: Nancy Martindale, Danny Lauterbach, Martha Badger, and Charlotte Moore.

Gayland: Susan McCain, Candy Harris, Carol Anthony and Carla Turner.

Brookwood: Ellen Turner, Jan Herring, Bobby Watson, Brenda McRoy.

Jr. High: Fred O. Ellis, Polly Tullis, Diane Marcum and Mike Turner.

These winners will vie against spellers from other schools in Hempstead County.

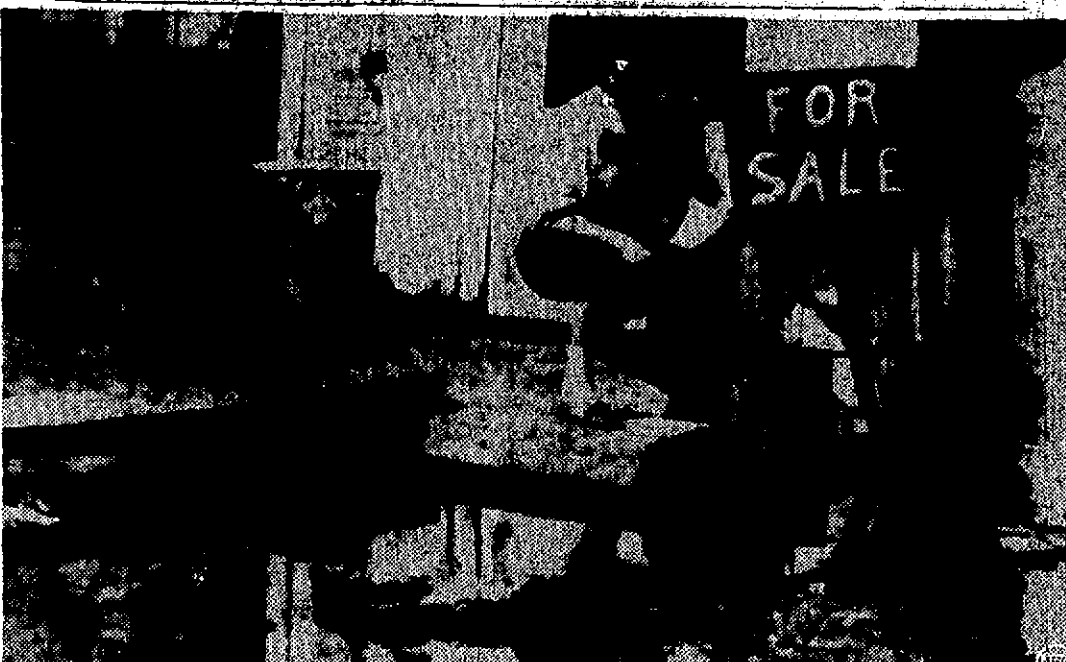

The second school broadcast on Saturday will be a playback of the Junior and Senior Band concerts that were recorded on March 18. They will be heard from 1:30 to 3 p. m.

Weather

Total 1962 precipitation through February, 12.13 inches; during the same period a year ago, 7.03 inches.

Experiment Station report for 24-hours ending at 8 a. m. Friday, High 73, Low 47, trace of precipitation.

Jaycees Plan Operation Springtime

The Hope Jaycees' "Operation Springtime" will be launched on Monday, April 2, with a kickoff parade in downtown Hope at 3 p. m. The Hope Junior and Senior Bands will take part along with several "Dirt Chasers" who will be out to "Give old Man Dirty Grime a real hard time."

The Mayor will proclaim clean up time and the Jaycees' operation Springtime will be under way.

There will be special events every day to emphasize various phases of operation Springtime. For example: Tuesday will be "Fire Inspection Day" and home owners will be asked to remove fire hazards from their property.

Other days will include fix up day, paint up day and pick up day. Friday, April 6, will be pick up day and the Jaycees are arranging for a truck to pick up all that has been "cleared out."

There will be 4 handsome trophies given to property owners or tenants who make the greatest improvements in the following categories: Clean up, Paint up, Fix up and Plant up. There will be a sweepstakes trophy to the property owner or tenant showing the greatest improvement in all phases.

Those wishing to take part and compete for the trophies are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce and tell them which category you wish to compete in. An inspection team will come to visit your home or property on April 1st, 2nd or 3rd. You do not enter the sweepstakes division; that will be a bonus trophy to someone who does enter.

Raymond Byers, Jon Barbarotto and Jack Reynard are on the committee to supervise operation Springtime. The club will work on several projects including repainting downtown trash cans, working on signs on the highway, and others. They urge everyone in Hempstead County to make their property or home more attractive by cleaning up, painting up and beautifying during "Operation Springtime," April 2 to 14.

Revival Meet at Southside Assembly

Revival services to begin this coming Sunday, April 1 at the Southside Assembly with Evangelist David L. Busick of San Bernardino, Calif. Services will be conducted each evening at 7:30 p. m. with special music and singing and preaching.

NO RIDES — MRS. JANE MASSEY walked 26 miles in seven hours carrying her ill son, Van Arnold, to a hospital in Houston from her home near Humble, Tex. ## A Very Busy Four Hours

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Police reported Johnny Ellis, 34, of Lookout Mountain did all this in a busy four hours Thursday night:

Went to jail charged with drunkenness.

Went to a hospital for treatment of a headcut.

Overpowered a hospital orderly and escaped.

Held up a liquor store attendant across town and took $46.

Backed out the door of the store into the open arms of a detective.

Went back to jail charged with armed robbery.

Ivy Mitchell Candidate for Treasurer

The Star was authorized today to announce the candidacy of Ivy Mitchell for the office of Hempstead County Treasurer. In making his announcement, Mr. Mitchell, issued the following statement:

"I would like to take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for treasurer of Hempstead County.

"I have lived in Hempstead County for 37 years. I am married to the former Villa Pickard. We have four children (Billy, Betty, Spanky and Brenda), all graduates of Hope High School.

"I am a member of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church, presently employed by York Furniture Company.

"During the next four months I will make every effort to contact each citizen of this county to personally solicit your vote and support.

"If you should elect me County Treasurer, I will perform the duties of this office to the best of my ability and with the personal attention the office deserves."

Tuberculosis Seal Clinic Held Here

Dick Turnage, County Chairman was host earlier this week to an annual Christmas Seal Clinic held at Diamond Cafe.

The clinic was conducted by Mrs. Maureen Smith, campaign director for the Arkansas TB Association and J. T. Haynes, field representative. All phases of conducting the campaign were covered as well as new materials and procedures for the 1962-63 drive.

The meet was opened by R. H. Schmitt, executive director of the TB Association, who explained some of the new areas in which the organization will participate. Also attending were Mrs. Ben Meade, executive secretary of the Columbia County Assn. and Mrs. R. M. Soper, executive secretary of the Clark County group.

Mrs. Williams Dies in Local Rest Home

Mrs. Arlie Anna Williams, aged 86, died this morning in a local Nursing Home. She is a lifelong resident of this county and a member of the Methodist Church. She is survived by 4 sons, David Williams, Hanesville, La. A. B. Williams of Nashville, Odie Williams of Little Rock, Roger Williams of Houston, one daughter, Mrs. Alonzo Durham of Hope, one sister, Mrs. Hattie Allan of Mena, Ark.

Funeral Services are incomplete and will be announced by Oakcrest Funeral Home.

Florida Bros. Ask Judgments

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal attorneys said Thursday that two wealthy Osceola brothers, currently involved in a multi-million dollar tax case, were seeking judgments for their corporations for some years which were not involved in the case.

The statement came in reply to a series of defense motions made Wednesday at the conclusion of the government's testimony in the tax case involving George and Andrew Florida.

Defense Attorney Leon B. Catlett said Wednesday that 13 of the Florida corporations were entitled to judgments against the government because fraud had not been proved.

The federal attorneys contend the U.S. District Court has no jurisdiction to render a judgment for the years in question.

They indicated the government had not tried to prove fraud for some years but that tax assessments for those years remain valid unless proven otherwise by the defendants.

The defense will begin presentation of testimony when trial resumes April 9.

Women Believe Cats Are Better

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A dog may be man's best friend, but the women are lined up on the side of the cats.

Under pressure from a group of women called the Animal Haven's League, the City Council voted 5-0 Thursday against applying to cats a city ordinance that punishes owners of dogs who soil public sidewalks or private lawns.

JFK Ready With Court Appointment

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy was believed today to have practically made up his mind on a Supreme Court appointee to succeed retiring Justice Charles Evans Whittaker. But he kept his own counsel amid a swirl of speculation.

The many names figuring in the guesswork included two Cabinet members — Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff, 51, former governor of Connecticut, and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, 53, of Chicago.

Ribicoff once served as a police court judge in Hartford. Goldberg has had no judicial experience, although he has practiced law extensively, especially in the labor field.

In announcing Whittaker's retirement because of physical exhaustion, Kennedy said Thursday he would name a successor shortly. This was taken to mean he had someone in mind, because it takes time to winnow possibilities.

Some lawyers speculated that since Kennedy has an eye to history, he might name a legal luminary such as:

1. Paul Abraham Freund, 54, law professor and legal historian at Harvard, author of "On Understanding the Supreme Court," and other works about the high tribunal.

2. Eugene Victor Rostow, 48, lawyer-economist, dean of the Yale Law School and brother of Walt Whitman Rostow, chairman of the State Department's policy planning council.

Some who thought that Kennedy might name a Negro to the Supreme Court for the first time, but others felt he would wait until later before taking this historic step.

In case he decides to take it now, a name prominently mentioned is William Henry Hastie, 57, former governor of the Virgin Islands and since 1947 judge of the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals, with headquarters at Philadelphia.

As for Ribicoff, he is reported to have told friends he does not expect to get a Supreme Court appointment at this time. Anyway, he is an all but declared candidate for the Democratic senatorial nomination from Connecticut, and might find it difficult to change pace now.

Goldberg has so impressed Kennedy with his work on labor-management disputes, and otherwise, that the President might want to keep him in the Cabinet.

The capital is watching to see how the forthcoming appointment affects the so-called conservative liberal division of the Supreme Court. Individual members at times shift from one bloc to another. But so far as any such division can be figured out in loose designations, Whittaker tended to vote with the more conservative bloc—often composed also of Justices Frankfurter, Tom C. Clark, John M. Harlan and Potter Stewart.

Generally identified in most cases with the more liberal bloc are four of the nine justices—Chief Justice Earl Warren, William O. Douglas, Hugo L. Black and William J. Brennan Jr.

Attorney Switches State Agencies

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Herrn A. Northcutt, 52, chief attorney for the state Revenue Department, resigned Thursday to accept a position as assistant chief attorney with the state Employment Security Division.

Lyle Williams, assistant Revenue Department attorney, was named to succeed Northcutt.

The ESD position was vacated by the recent death of L. D. Gibbons.

Northcutt is a former mayor of Salem and a veteran state employee.

Tax Load Heavy

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas taxpayers paid $251,821,000 in federal taxes during 1961, the Internal Revenue Service reported Thursday. Individual income tax returns totaled $201,413,000 while $34,256,000 was paid in corporation income taxes and $16,151,000 in miscellaneous taxes.

Union Leader to End Missile Base Strike

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP) — A union official announced today he was ending picketing that had interfered with construction at three of 12 Atlas missile sites ringing Plattsburgh Air Force Base.

Some construction workers had refused to cross picket lines established Thursday by an office employees' union seeking recognition by a contractor.

The union official said he was withdrawing the pickets and accepting an invitation to discuss problems with the contractor.

The number of men who had declined to work was not determined. More than 1,500 construction men are employed at the 12 sites, a construction spokesman said.

Letters to Students Under Probe

SILOAM SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Postal authorities are investigating letters received this week by John Brown University students advocating student overthrow of school governments and free love on campuses.

The letters were received by 13 students from a group calling itself the Southwestern Students Military Junta. They were postmarked Lancaster, Pa.

John Brown Jr., president of the university here, termed the letters "a ridiculous joke," but the matter was turned over to postal inspector J. R. Backus of Fayetteville.

The letters called for a student uprising on May 1 to seize control of the school. The students were told they would provide "the first test case in Arkansas" for student overthrow.

John Brown University is a private, interdenominational liberal arts school, with an enrollment of 329 students from 35 states and five foreign countries.

Lately, anti-communism seminars have been held on the campus.

Regarding free love, the letters called for setting up breeding clubs.

Students were urged to seize and control campus endowments, assets and properties for use by the junta.

Siloom Springs Postmaster Gene Trahan acknowledged that the school "has been fighting communism like the devil fighting holy water."

But he said he thought the matter just a joke.

The letters urged immediate termination of graduation and "making the campus into a permanent entity to be composed of the classes of 1962, 63, 64 and 65 with free love clubs providing for future alumni and students."

The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission released 16 turkeys, eight hens and eight gobblers, northeast of DeAnn yesterday.

Wildlife Association officer Dorsey McTear urged residents of the area, as well as hunter, to watch out and protect the turkeys and be sure to report any shooting them.

Prisoners All Admit Guilt, Cubans Report

By GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA (AP) — Havana's three morning papers said today all of the more than 1,100 prisoners on trial for participating in the badly crushed Cuban invasion last April have admitted their guilt.

The press accounts said the president of the tribunal, Commander Augusto Martinez Sanchez, told the prisoners' trial, they could state their case.

The paper Hoy said all admitted "having invaded their fatherland, having participated in an invasion prepared, organized, trained and financed by Yankee imperialists, and said they did not want to make any further declarations."

The press accounts said the prisoners faced a court tribunal whose members sat on long benches in a basketball court within a prison compound.

Western newsmen, barred from the trial, had been told it was being held in a courtroom.

The three Havana morning papers carried a long letter they said was a confession of Capt. Jose A. Perez San Roman, identified as a leader of the invasion forces. The letter said the invasion prisoners were naive and foolish if they thought they were coming ashore to save Cuba. The letter was dated May 30, 1961, and the paper said it was delivered to Prime Minister Fidel Castro the next day.

A photograph in the paper Revolution showed prisoners sitting in the front row. The prisoners, wearing light-colored shirts and denim trousers, appeared to be in good health.

Steel Pact Appears to Be Ready

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Steel negotiators entered today the final joint session before three key United Steel Workers Union groups meet this weekend to take possible action on contract proposals.

Negotiators said they worked Thursday on some of the remaining problems and then met again Thursday night.

He will report to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for combat training.

New President in Argentina Military Ruled

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Jose Maria Guido formally assumed the office of president today under the watchful eye and guiding hand of Argentina's military leaders—and amid a few shouts of "Viva Frondizi!"

The oath-taking ceremony was the second for the former Senate president.

The military chiefs were not happy that he took the oath before the Supreme Court Thursday without informing them. For a time it appeared some officers might not recognize the military's own first choice for a constitutional successor to Arturo Frondizi, deposed Thursday and flown to a prison island.

The second ceremony was decided upon after Guido was reported to have agreed to a set of military demands including outlawing of Peronistas, Communists and Castroites and placing all Argentina under federal control.

The president's office already was being used by the military to issue its communiqués when Guido, starting solemnly through his hornrimmed glasses, went through the six-minute ceremony.

Shouts for Frondizi were heard from a few persons present at the ceremony in the pink-walled palace.

The act of succession was first signed, with all ministers of Frondizi's last government also affixing their signatures. The military members of the Cabinet were the last to sign.

The act declared that, in view of the facts known by the public which have produced the vacancy of executive power, Guido had assumed the office.

The military signers were Gen. Raul Poggi of the army, who has terminated the bloodless coup which ended Frondizi's stormy rule; Brig. Cayo Antonio Alsina, of the air force and Rear Adm. Agustin Penas of the navy.

For hours there was uncertainty and the prospect of a new crisis over whether Guido actually would become chief executive of this nervous nation, ridden by political and economic crisis, even though the military, in a communiqué, had finally announced that Guido would be installed at today's ceremony.

NLR Asked to Integrate City Parks

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The North Little Rock City Council, in a petition made public Thursday, has been asked to establish an interracial city parks commission designed to work toward desegregation city park facilities.

A group, calling itself "The Citizen's Eyes Is (sic) on the City," submitted a petition containing 1,006 signatures to the Council at its Feb. 26 meeting.

City Clerk Perry Machin said Thursday that if the petition had not been read at the February meeting, it was due to an oversight.

The petition also asks that the Sherman Park Board, which operates the city's only all-Negro park, be abolished and that Mayor W. F. Laman appoint a temporary committee which would eventually be replaced by an elected body.

Laman said action on the petition rested with the council.

Often items are accepted by a city council but never acted upon.

Stations Abandoned
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rock Island Line stations at Casa and Houston in Perry County and Havana in Yell County will be abandoned if no protests are brought before the Arkansas Commerce Commission within 30 days. The commission approved the action Wednesday, and said caretakers also could be laid off. The stations have had no agents for several years. The railroad said the stations were a financial burden.

We Want Faubus, Some Declare

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mayor Ben Butler of Osceola called on Gov. Orval E. Faubus today in an effort to persuade him to run for a fifth term.

Butler would not say how the meeting turned out. However, Butler said he met with the governor on the same subject earlier this week and he indicated Faubus had said he did not plan to run.

"We in eastern Arkansas are better satisfied with Faubus than with any governor since Carl Bailey," Butler said. "Some folks feel the Mississippi Delta area ought to pay all the freight and to get very little in return."

Butler is former president of the Arkansas Municipal League. Faubus declined again today to discuss what he will announce when he goes on a statewide television network Saturday night. He was asked if he had written his speech and he replied, "I'm waiting to decide how to write it."

Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., is the only official gubernatorial candidate. He filed Monday, Kenneth Coffelt a Little Rock attorney, said he would enter the race.

Others also eyeing the office include Atty. Gen. Frank Holt, former Gov. Sid McMath and W. R. (Witt) Stephens, president of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., and a state representative from Grant County.

Value of mineral production in Arkansas during 1961 was estimated at more than 152 million dollars.

ROYCE WEISENBERGER of Hope has filed his fee as a candidate for Chancellor of the Second Division, and will make a statement in behalf of his candidacy later.

Speculation on Plans of the Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — New names continued to crop up in gubernatorial speculation Wednesday as the state waited for Gov. Orval E. Faubus' Saturday announcement about his plans.

Desha County Sheriff Robert Moore, Arkadelphia attorney Jim Gooch and Commerce Commissioner J. Orville Cheney popped into the picture Wednesday.

These three reportedly would be candidates only if Faubus does not run. The governor talks more and more like a man pulling out of politics.

Faubus will go on a statewide radio-television network Saturday at 7:30 p.m. to announce whether he will seek a fifth term. Most potential candidates are expected to bide their time until after Faubus commits himself.

Moore, Gooch and Cheney reportedly were among half a dozen or so aspiring candidates who have discussed their hopes with Faubus.

Moore, 33, has been a long-time leader in the Arkansas Sheriffs Association and once served as president of the National Sheriffs Association.

Gooch was prominently mentioned two years ago as a potential appointee to a federal judgeship.

Cheney was Faubus' revenue commissioner for seven years. He moved to the Commerce Commission earlier this year. He is a former state senator from Calico Rock.

Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., is the only official gubernatorial candidate. He filed Monday, Kenneth Coffelt a Little Rock attorney, said he would enter the race.

Others also eyeing the office include Atty. Gen. Frank Holt, former Gov. Sid McMath and W. R. (Witt) Stephens, president of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., and a state representative from Grant County.

Advice Worked — Too Well!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I wrote you last year asking what I could do about a husband who fell for every shapely girl. I was overweight at the time. You advised me to diet. I did and am proud of myself. Now being able to wear size 10 pants and look like a beauty queen contestant.

I got my husband back all right but he's jealous as hell. I feel like flying to the moon and if it weren't for my four daughters, I'd go.

Last night I blew my top when he accused my first cousin of raising me! This cousin was wofling by my mother. I think of him as a brother, not having any brothers or sisters of my own. Sure, he does put his arms around me and ask how the old world's going, but so what? He's just a kisser's cousin, yet all mention of his name my husband looks as if he'd kill me. Sometimes I wish he would. His jealousy makes life so unbearable. He acts like I was all the gold that's left in Fort Knox, and he's a one-man battalion guarding it. My love for him is fast turning to hate. What to do now. —Disgusted Wife.

Dear Disgusted: I'm proud of you! Actually, your husband, by being jealous, is paying you one big compliment.

What you both need now is a sense of humor. Kid him. Learn to laugh at yourself. Tell your friends what has happened. It's a good story. Jealousy, of course, is insecurity. Maybe your husband should do a bit of sprucing up himself. Perhaps he's too fat, or too thin, in any event, see that he eats the right foods. Encourage him to buy a new suit for Easter. Help him select it. Prove, by deeds, not words, that you care as much as he. Once convinced, he will lose his sense of ever decide to settle down. Was insecurity and with it, his jealousy that a mistake —Mixed-Up Man.

Dear Helen: I have been going steady for a year with a divorced woman who is the mother of two children. Although on the possession side, I think I treated her to laugh at yourself. Tell your friends what has happened. It's a good story. Jealousy, of course, is insecurity. Maybe your husband should do a bit of sprucing up himself. Perhaps he's too fat, or too thin, in any event, see that he eats the right foods. Encourage him to buy a new suit for Easter. Help him select it. Prove, by deeds, not words, that you care as much as he. Once convinced, he will lose his sense of ever decide to settle down. Was insecurity and with it, his jealousy that a mistake —Mixed-Up Man.

Dear Helen: I'm engaged to a 19-year-old boy who comes of fine family and holds a good job. I know he loves me, as I do him. The same can't be said for his parents. I am partly Indian and this they hold against me.

Just because a few Indians are good for nothing, we're all not supposed to be equally shiftless. That isn't true. While my skin isn't dark, I do have the facial characteristics of my people and this troubles my future mother-in-law. I'm proud, not ashamed of my Indian blood. Am I doing my fiancé wrong by not breaking our engagement? —Pocahontas.

Dear Pocahontas: You are marrying this fine boy, as you deserve him, not his parents. If he cares, that is all that matters. Confound those future in-laws by making him the best possible wife. Study home economics, cooking and family budgeting. Learn to sew. Be the model helpmate and you'll win them over yet — which, since you're to be a member of the family, is your job. My husband's grandmother was partly Indian and we're proud of it.

Passenger Business Remains Our Business

You may have heard it said that railroads want to get out of the passenger business — an erroneous conclusion probably based upon the discontinuance of some trains no longer used by the public.

Here at Kansas City Southern we feel we have an obligation to provide good and ample passenger service to the people of our area. Yet we have reduced the number of our passenger trains since the peak war years — but only after convincing (and costly) proof that you, our patrons, no longer considered the service necessary.

We have no intention of going out of the passenger business. Rather, we hope to improve our service so that you and others may have the benefit of the safest, most enjoyable, most economical way to travel.

We earnestly seek your help to this end!

Stations Abandoned
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Rock Island Line stations at Casa and Houston in Perry County and Havana in Yell County will be abandoned if no protests are brought before the Arkansas Commerce Commission within 30 days. The commission approved the action Wednesday, and said caretakers also could be laid off. The stations have had no agents for several years. The railroad said the stations were a financial burden.

Dental Association Open House Dr. and Mrs. Sam Strong Jr., assisted by Dr. and Mrs. James Shuffield held Open House in the Strout home on Monday for members of the Tri-County Dental Association.

Redbuds and white daffodils were used in the decorations for the living room, while in the family room on the mantle was seen a striking mass arrangement of large yellow jonquils in a brass container flanked by a brass candleholder holding ivory-colored tapers. Other spring flowers were placed at vantage points throughout the rooms.

The dining table held an attractive assortment of hors d'oeuvres, and cold drinks, and were also served. Out of town guests, other than the members, were Drs. Claude Phillips and James Clark, both of Texarkana.

Duplicate Bridge Club For its weekly game at the Diamond, the Hope Duplicate Bridge Club had four guests from Texarkana on March 26. They were Mrs. Sidney Lee, Mrs. Dwight Racht, Mrs. Floyd Bell and Mrs. Christine Patterson. Luther Hollamon and Dr. Harold Bruns teamed up to take first place in the scoring. Mrs. J. M. Duffie and Mrs. Marie Herdix were second. Third went Mrs. Racht and Mrs. Patterson. There were 5 1/2 tables of players.

Outing in Scouting

An outing in Scouting will be held from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on April 24 at the Girl Scout "Little House" in Hope Fair Park. This will be outdoor training for all registered adult scouts in District 3. Conifer Council. Between 20 and 25 are expected.

Registered Nurses Meet

The Prescott District Registered Nurses will have two guest speakers at their meeting Tuesday, April 3 at 7:30 in the recreation hall of Memorial Hospital Nursing Home. They are Mrs. Kathleen Ezell, second vice president of the Arkansas Nursing Association and Miss Hilda Scott, executive director of the ANA. A film "Hospital Sepsis" will be shown. All RNs are urged to attend.

Tuesday Bridge Club

When Mrs. R. T. White was hostess to her Tuesday Bridge Club on March 27, she used daffodils as floral decorations in her home. Two tables of club members assembled for the afternoon. Mrs. Lloyd Spencer was high score winner and Mrs. E. J. Whitman was second. During the afternoon, coffee, cold drinks and tasty tidbits were enjoyed.

Bridge Group Meets

Mrs. John Gardner Jr., Mrs. E. P. Young Jr., and Mrs. Bill Watson were guests of a local bridge club on Tuesday night, March 27 in the home of Mrs. Jud Martin. Red tulips, white lilies and pear blossoms made colorful arrangements.

High score winner was Mrs. Homer Jones, while Mrs. Lloyd Guerin was second. Mrs. Gardner won the game prize. The hostess served a salad plate with coffee.

We Want Faubus, Some Declare

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mayor Ben Butler of Osceola called on Gov. Orval E. Faubus today in an effort to persuade him to run for a fifth term.

Butler would not say how the meeting turned out. However, Butler said he met with the governor on the same subject earlier this week and he indicated Faubus had said he did not plan to run.

"We in eastern Arkansas are better satisfied with Faubus than with any governor since Carl Bailey," Butler said. "Some folks feel the Mississippi Delta area ought to pay all the freight and to get very little in return."

Butler is former president of the Arkansas Municipal League. Faubus declined again today to discuss what he will announce when he goes on a statewide television network Saturday night. He was asked if he had written his speech and he replied, "I'm waiting to decide how to write it."

ONE OF THE GUEST speakers for the PTA meeting following counselors' Visitation Day April 3 at Hope High school will be Dr. Dorothy A. Rice, associate professor of education and psychology at Henderson State Teachers College. She will discuss, "Why We Test Your Children."

ROYCE WEISENBERGER of Hope has filed his fee-as-a candidate for Chancellor of the Second Division and will make a statement in behalf of his candidacy later.

Speculation on Plans of the Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — New names continued to crop up in gubernatorial speculation Wednesday as the state waited for Gov. Orval E. Faubus' Saturday announcement about his plans.

Desha County Sheriff Robert Moore, Arkadelphia attorney Jim Gooch and Commerce Commissioner J. Orville Cheney popped into the picture Wednesday.

These three reportedly would be candidates only if Faubus does not run. The governor talks more and more like a man pulling out of politics.

Faubus will go on a statewide radio-television network Saturday at 7:30 p.m. to announce whether he will seek a fifth term. Most potential candidates are expected to hide their time until after Faubus commits himself.

Moore, Gooch and Cheney reportedly were among half a dozen or so aspiring candidates who have discussed their hopes with Faubus.

Moore, 53, has been a long-time leader in the Arkansas Sheriffs Association and once served as president of the National Sheriffs Association.

Gooch was prominently mentioned two years ago as a potential appointee to a federal judgeship.

Cheney was Faubus' revenue commissioner for seven years. He moved to the Commerce Commission earlier this year. He is a former state senator from Calico Rock.

Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., is the only official gubernatorial candidate. He filed Monday. Kenneth Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney, said he would enter the race.

Others also eyeing the office include Atty. Gen. Frank Holt, former Gov. Sid McMath and W. R. (Witt) Stephens, president of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., and a state representative from Grant County.

Value of mineral production in Arkansas during 1961 was estimated at more than 152 million dollars.

Advice Worked — Too Well!

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I wrote you last year asking what I could do about a husband who fell for every shapely girl. I was overweight at the time. You advised me to diet. I did and am proud of myself—now being able to wear size 10 and look like a beauty queen contestant.

I got my husband back all right but he's jealous as hell. I feel like flying to the moon and if it weren't for my four daughters, I'd go.

Last night I blew my top when he accused my first cousin of winking at me! This cousin was raised by my mother. I think of him as a brother, not having any brothers or sisters of my own. Sure, he does put his arms around me and ask how the old world's going, but so what? He's just a kisser! cousin, yet at mention of his name my husband looks as if he'd kill me. Sometimes I wish he would. His jealousy makes life so unbearable. He acts like I was all the gold that's left in Fort Knox, and he a one-man battalion guarding it. My love for him is fast turning to hate. What to do now — Disgusted Wife.

Dear Disgusted: I'm proud of you! Actually, your husband, by being jealous, is paying you one big compliment.

What you both need now is a sense of humor. Kid him. Learn to laugh at yourself. Tell your friends what has happened. It's a good story. Jealousy, of course, is insecurity. Maybe your husband should do a bit of sprucing up himself. Perhaps he's too fat, or too thin. In any event, see that he eats the right foods. Encourage him to buy a new suit for Easter. Help him select it. Prove, by deeds, not words, that you care as much as he. Once you've convinced, he will lose his sense of ever decide to settle down. Was insecurity and with it, his jealousy. —Mixed-Up Man.

In the doing, don't lose that new-found beauty of yours!

Dear Helen: I'm engaged to a 19-year-old boy who comes of fine family and holds a good job. I know he loves me, as I do him. The same can't be said for his parents. I am partly Indian and this they hold against me. Just because a few Indians are good for nothing, we're all not supposed to be equally shiftless. That isn't true. While my skin isn't dark, I do have the facial characteristics of my people and this troubles my future mother-in-law. I'm proud, not ashamed of my Indian blood. Am I doing my fiancé wrong by not breaking our engagement? —Pocahontas.

Dear Pocahontas: You are marrying this fine boy, as you describe him, not his parents. If he cares, that is all that matters. Confound those future in-laws by making him the best possible wife. Study home economics, cooking and family budgeting. Learn to sew. Be the model helpmate and you'll win them over yet — which, since you're to be a member of the family, is your job. My husband's grandmother was partly Indian and we're proud of it.

Dear Helen: I have been going steady for a year with a divorced woman who is the mother of two children. Although on the possession side, I think I treated her well. The children I love. Out of a clear sky, she wrote that she doesn't want to be tied down to one man, so it is "good-bye" to a bit of sprucing up, hey!

She's the only girl I ever loved or will love. You once gave a friend of mine, a single man, some advice and it sure paid off. Easter. Help him select it. Prove, by deeds, not words, that you care as much as he. Once you've convinced, he will lose his sense of ever decide to settle down. Was insecurity and with it, his jealousy. —Mixed-Up Man.

Dear Mixed-Up: Yes, you are as she feels she's got you on the string she will remain interested. Write her that, upon reconsideration, you've decided to accept her decision to call it a day, so a good-bye to her, too. Play the field and await results.

Passenger Business Remains Our Business

You may have heard it said that railroads want to get out of the passenger business — an erroneous conclusion probably based upon the discontinuance of some trains no longer used by the public.

Here at Kansas City Southern we feel we have an obligation to provide good and ample passenger service to the people of our area. Yet we have reduced the number of our passenger trains since the peak war years — but only after convincing (and costly) proof that you, our patrons, no longer considered the service necessary.

We have no intention of going out of the passenger business. Rather, we hope to improve our service so that you and others may have the benefit of the safest, most enjoyable, most economical way to travel.

We earnestly seek your help to this end!

Dodgers Come From Behind to Take Yanks

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The key to the Baltimore Orioles' pennant chances in the 1962 baseball campaign could rest in the hands of Steve Barber, the 23-year-old pitcher, but to American League hitters, "the pitcher they least like to hit against."

The unqualified praise for Barber, a left-hander who was the Orioles' top winner last year with 18 victories, comes from the observations of Manager Ralph Houk of the New York Yankees. Barber has made every effort to make it stick this spring.

On Thursday, Barber took the mound for the second time Thursday and allowed St. Louis only one scratch infield singles in a 4-1 win, striking out two batters, walking none in the Orioles' 12 exhibition victory at Miami.

It was the second outstanding performance for Barber, now in only his third season in the big leagues. He checked Detroit on a 4-0 shutout in a three-inning game a week ago and has allowed just one earned run in nine innings.

Barber will be sprung from his Army post to pitch for the Orioles on weekends during the regular season.

In other Florida games, Cincinnati won 10-4 at St. Petersburg, Philadelphia 15-6 at Clearwater, Minnesota beat Detroit 7-4 at Lakeland, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the Yankees 6-5 in 10 innings at Fort Lauderdale, Milwaukee defeated the New York Mets 6-2 at St. Petersburg, Chicago's White Sox won 10-1 at St. Petersburg, Pittsburgh 11-5 at Sarasota and Kansas City topped Washington 6-1 at Fort Lauderdale.

On Thursday, Philadelphia 15-6 at Clearwater, Arizona, the Chicago Cubs, nipped Houston 7-5 at Mesa, Ariz., and the Los Angeles Angels, knocked off Cleveland 7-4 at Palm Springs, Calif., with future star, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower looking on.

Three-run homers by Gordon Coleman and Jerry Lynch powered the Reds to their win over the Phillies, who got a three-run eighth shot from Roy Sievers.

The Dodgers won it in the 10th when Lee Walls doubled home Wally Moon with the deciding run after the Yankees had lost an early lead, built on Mickey Vernon's two-run homer and John Blanchard's two RBI. The Braves snapped a 1-1 tie in the sixth to top the Mets as rookie Mack Jones knocked in Eddie Matthews with a triple.

The Chicago White Sox pounded the Pirates Bob Friend for seven runs and eight runs in the first two innings for all the runs they needed. Dale Long hit his seventh homer for the Senators, but that was all they got against the Astros as Jerry Walker, Dan Pflaster and Dave Wickersham combined to launch a seven-hitter.

The Red Sox beat the Giants 10-3, Frank Malzone accounting for three RBI with a homer and two singles. Outfielder George Altamirano stroked three singles and a triple, that brought in the Cubs' winning runs in the sixth inning against the Colts.

The size of the average county in the state is 708 square miles.

Valley Springs Goes to AA

VALLEY SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Valley Springs High School, perennial Class basketball power, will step up to Region IAA next Jan. 1.

It is the first time an Arkansas school has jumped two classifications at once. Valley Springs has an enrollment of only 150 in its upper four grades, and Class AA schools have enrollments of between 400 and 700.

The Arkansas Athletic Association allows a school to move up as it wishes. Valley Springs has filed with the AAA a letter of intent to do so.

Valley Springs has four times won the Class B state cage title.

Midwest's Top Track Teams in Hog Relays

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Eight of the Midwest's top track and field teams meet here in the annual Arkansas Relays Saturday afternoon.

The 100-yard dash will be the glamor event, with top sprinters from Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Kansas State and Arkansas.

Other teams in the meet are Missouri, Wichita, Tulsa, and Pittsburg State, Kan.

Oklahoma's Big Eight champions will have the overall advantage in depth, but the interest will be focused on individual performances.

Pittsburg has an outstanding javelin thrower in John Nicholson, who has tossed 211 feet 10 inches, and a strong discus candidate in Charles Chancellor, who has throw 167 feet 6½ inches.

The shot put favorite is Missouri's Donald Smith, whose 59 feet 3 inches is better than the meet record of 58 feet 10½ inches.

Missouri also has two outstanding vaulters, Mike Clark and Charles Wiley.

The 100-yard dash will bring together Anthony Watson, Mark Sullivan and Richard Sinclair of Kansas State, Darrell Davis of Oklahoma, Dale Alexander of Oklahoma State and Gary Brown of Arkansas. Watson and Alexander have been timed in 9.6 seconds.

Oklahoma State's stalwarts are high jumper Don Blakely (6 feet 5½ inches), pole vaulter Preston Holsinger (14 feet) and half-miler Billy Stone (1:48.6).

Several open events should provide some crowd interest. J. D. Martin, Olympic pole vaulter from Oklahoma, who has cleared 15 feet 9½ inches, will be the featured performer in that event. Arkansas hurdler Ralph Brodie is one of the favorites in the two open hurdles events.

Arkansas pole vaulter Jerry Hughes, who has cleared 14 feet 9 inches indoors, is working toward the 15 foot mark. Kansas State hurdler Jerry Hooker ranks among the nation's best with a 14 second clocking.

Wants a New Office for Science

By KARL R. BAUMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy asked Congress today for authority to set up a new office of science and technology. He wants government efforts in the two fields coordinated in the interests of national security and general welfare.

His proposal went to Congress in the form of a reorganization plan. The proposed office would be headed by a $25,000-a-year director, who would report directly to the President. The director would be appointed by the President, subject to confirmation by the Senate. A deputy director would get $20,500 a year.

Kennedy said the arrangement would constitute an important development in the executive branch organization for science and technology.

"Under these arrangements the President will have permanent staff resources capable of advising and assisting him in matters of national policy affected by or pertaining to science and technology," Kennedy said.

Some of the functions of the National Science Foundation would be transferred to the new presidential office. These would include the task of evaluating scientific research programs undertaken by government agencies.

The reorganization plan will become effective in 60 days unless vetoed by either the House or the Senate.

Mother of Paret Coming to Bedside

NEW YORK (AP)—Former welterweight champion Benny (Kid) Paret remained in a moderate coma, his condition is still critical, today while his mother prepared to fly here from Cuba to be at his bedside.

Arrangements were completed Thursday night in Havana for Paret's mother, Mrs. Maxima Crespo, to fly to Miami sometime today. Mrs. Crespo, who speaks no English, said she had no funds to continue on to New York but was confident she would get here.

"My place is beside my son," she said, after bitterly denouncing boxing as "a question of animals" and complaining that Paret's manager, Maimy Alfaro, did not notify her of her son's condition until Monday—two days after he was savagely beaten in a title bout with Emile Griffith.

Mrs. Crespo said she believed her son would recover. "I have delivered (my hopes) to the great power of God," she said.

Thursday night's hospital bulletin said, "There has been no change in the condition of Paret throughout the day. He continues in moderate coma. He is being maintained under hypothermia. His general systemic condition remains good."

Missile Base Strike May Be Curbed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Investigations Subcommittee said today Congress must consider curbing strikes at missile bases if labor and management won't keep the peace.

The subcommittee's unanimous report to the Senate accused unionists of having placed "greed ahead of devotion to the safety of their country" in a wave of strikes. These intolerably delayed the space flight and missile programs, the report said.

It also accused some of the contractors of having "gouged the government by rackets" in the leasing of tools, equipment and real estate. The subcommittee noted it is about to launch a wider inquiry into management practices.

The report said the Labor Department had "unduly delayed" in defining rules to eliminate jurisdictional disputes among unions. And, it accused the military of having been too passive in dealing with the problems.

In an accompanying statement, subcommittee chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., called for immediate action on legislation he has sponsored to outlaw strikes at all defense installations.

The subcommittee said that in 1961, when its investigation began, it seemed "inconceivable that any group of Americans would impede in any way the construction of missile launching sites and the installation of ballistic and space missiles."

But, the report said, the hearings last April and may showed a situation worse than expected. In 4½ years, it said, 325 strikes had caused a loss of 162,872 man-days of work at various missile bases,

Children Die in Abandoned Freezer

CLINTON, S.C. (AP)—The bodies of three young children were found Wednesday in one of three compartments of an abandoned freezer locker.

The victims were Phyllis Craig, 4, and Sylvia Craig, 3, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Craig; and Angelia Davis, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis.

Sheriff R. Eugene Johnson said Mrs. Davis had seen the children playing in her yard and began looking for them when they disappeared from her sight. She found them in the freezer locker that was in the yard of the Davis home.

Court Justice Will Retire

WASHINGTON (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whittaker retired today.

Whittaker, 61, a justice for five years, has been in ill health.

President Kennedy announced at a news conference that Whittaker had decided to retire effective April 1.

The President said nothing about a successor. Filling the vacancy will give Kennedy his first appointment to the highest tribunal.

about half the loss at Cape Canaveral.

The report pictured the walkouts as designed to compel the payment of "millions of dollars in exorbitant, unnecessary overtimes."

As a result, it said, electricians ran their wages as high as $748 a week, ditch diggers as high as $287 a week, while work was being turned out at a rate "as low as 40 per cent of capacity."

"The international unions did nothing to control their local officers or to discipline their local unions during the 4 1/2 years to prevent the disgraceful work stoppages," the report said.

Declaring "management has not been blameless," the subcommittee said many employers seemed "indifferent to 'skyrocketing costs' of programs, because they were paid on a cost-plus basis."

Sorex Wins in Upset at Oaklawn

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Sorex, running under the colors of Audley Farms, raced from the outside and took an upset victory Thursday in the $3,500 feature at Oaklawn Park.

With Richard Lawless aboard, the seven-year-old gelding crossed under the wire a half-length in front of Marion H. Van Berg's Severn. Coming in third, another half-length back, was Severn's stablemate, Cable King.

The winner covered the mile and 70 yards of fast track in 1:42 flat and returned $24.60, $9.00 and $7.20.

A mid-week crowd of 8,075 watched $544,444.

Six previous winners at this meeting which will be run in a full field competing in today's featured $9,000 Arkansas Oil Dealers Purse.

The six furlong allowance event is for three and four-year-olds and heading the lineup is the Van Berg Colonel Al.

The three-year-old son of Colonel Fox and Skysham, is seeking his second Oaklawn victory of the current season.

Other previous winners are for Rest H. Lindsay's Don't be Little W. J. Green's Buckley Woods, L and K Stable's Arab Road, the Gordon Stable's Milo King and F. J. Carlin's Judge O.

Under conditions of the race, Arab Road will share equal topweight of 122 pounds with Emil A. Dust's Dearborn.

Others entered are Charles Vini's Nirvan, R. C. Blakely's Grand Lyle, Mrs. J. W. Durett's Lee Glen, Kelly Hodge's Baywood and Reynolds Brothers, Will R.

Also eligible, in the event any of the priority 12 are withdrawn, are E. J. Grosfield's Underwater, August Mueckler's Soco Dynamite, J. Graham's She Figures and Robert F. McClungess' Smokey Patrol.

Colonel Al turned back a strong field, including Milo King and Grand Lyle, in scoring an earlier victory. He later was a closeup third in the Tom Fool Purse, behind stablemate Bouncer and Milo King.

He will carry 112 pounds, including Wayne Chambers.

Don't Be Little, who registered a front-running victory here will be handled by Ken Griffith.

Print Firms Linked to Gambling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan's Senate Investigating Subcommittee, which urged an attack on gambling Wednesday, pointed out a link between racewire services in Arkansas and Louisiana.

The subcommittee's report, which was presented to the Senate, singled out the Nola Printing Co. of New Orleans and the Downtown Printing Co. of Hot Springs as two of the biggest distributors of gambling information.

The report said gangster Carlos Marcello is the brains behind Nola and former New York underworld figure Owen (Owney) Madden operates Downtown Printing in Hot Springs.

"Downtown Printing obtained horse race information through Nola Printing in New Orleans, for which it paid $250 weekly," the report said. "With such information, Downtown served numerous horse race betting rooms in the Hot Springs area through a private telephone line, which was struck across streets and through a national park at Hot Springs with extensions into bookmaking establishments."

"Evidence before the subcommittee also revealed that Downtown relayed information obtained through Nola Printing to C. Julian Lytle, the principal wire service operator in Little Rock, who operated under the names of Hill Amusement Co., and Independent News Service. Lytle also obtained information direct from Nola Printing Co., which he distributed to various bookmakers in the Little Rock area."

The report pointed out that Madden, James Vitro of Hot Springs and Lytle all took the Fifth Amendment when they testified before the subcommittee.

Whittaker was appointed to the highest court by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1957.

He is one of the present four Republicans on the nine-man court.
